Chicago, IL

Team Domani's styling space specialist, Ashley Rollert, along with Tricia Voigt, owner of Domani Salon & Spa, and stylist/make-up specialist Melissa Anfang attended a creative cutting class at the Vidal Sassoon in Chicago. This 2-day event provided hands-on training on this season's trends and taught new techniques in solving age-old hair dilemmas, including handling too-thick, too-coarse hair.

Domani's attendees spent these days with world-renown educators from Vidal's cutting team and also gained perspective from fellow classmates from all-over the Midwest.

"What an amazing opportunity!" said Ashley Rollert of the entire event, "They were doing things with hair that I would've never thought possible." She will be training the rest of team Domani in the weeks to come, so that all stylists have the benefit of Vidal's teachings.

Schedule your appointment today for your chance to have these exciting new options put to work for you!
